DEP We have no belief in the telegraphic report to-day's Journal, that Gen. Keyes took Richmond and raised the Federal flag over it. Still Richmond may have been taken and honored by the shadow of the glorious old banner of freedom are this. But we will not speculate. Later intelligence than we now have will be found under the head of "Sunday Night Despatches" on our third page.

The name of this State, three-fourths of them, are with the Democracy of the North, a party that kept this Union together. Local Democrat.

Yes, the "people of this State, three-fourths of them, are with the Democracy of the North," but, neighbor, you are with the other fourth. You are not with the Democracy of the North. You are against them. You are with the secessionists of Kentucky.

The position of the Democracy of the North was asserted explicitly by Governor Seymour in his inaugural address, and has just been re-asserted less explicitly by the Democratic members of the Legislature of New York.

Said Governor Seymour in his inaugural address:

We must accept the condition of things as they stand. At this moment the fortunes of our country are influenced by the results of battles. Our armies in the field must be supported—all constitutional demands of our General Government must be promptly responded to.

Say the Democratic members of the Legislature of New York in their address to the people:

We do not propose to discuss the question of the mutual duties of citizens and governmental authorities which this state of things has developed. It is fully and ably presented by the message of Governor Seymour to this Legislature. In view of like views we cordially concur. They have furnished a rallying point and common ground of union to the loyal Democracy and conservativeness of all the States.

In the midst of the surrounding gloom, with a desperate struggle forced upon us, the friends of the Democracy of New York can be clearly discerned. They are with us, and will support all constitutional demands for the successful conduct of the war till the armed force of the rebellion—the object and aims of which we heartily condemn—is broken, and to struggle for the restoration of a dismembered Union. We must cling to the Union and uphold the cause of the Constitution, and uphold the cause of law and order.

This is the position of the Democracy of the North. Here is where they stand. And the Union party of Kentucky stands with them; but, neighbor, where do you stand?

The third resolution of Senator Grover's Resolutions, which constitute the platform of the secession party of Kentucky, is as follows:

Resolved, That the object and purpose of the war now being perverted by the party now in control of the Government, to the subversion of its rights and most solemn pledges.

Senators in Congress are instructed, and our Representatives are requested, to oppose any further aid in its prosecution, by furnishing either men or money.

This is the position of the secessionists of Kentucky. Here is where they stand. And, neighbor, you stand with them as witness to the following declaration of yours:

We say not to another dollar nor another man can they get with our consent. Kentucky over it to her past dedication to take this position unequivocally. This is it. This is the summing up of the rebellion they say. If it be so, then we have a right to know if they are not of knowing that the rebellion succeeded rather through our devotion to the great principles of constitutional freedom than because of our devotion from the established limits of the government and violation of all the enlightened dictates of humanity.

Meeting of Merchants To-night.

An Important Movement.

At the suggestion of many members of the Board of Trade, a meeting of the merchants of this city has been called for THIS EVENING, at eight o'clock, at the Council Chamber, corner of Jefferson and Sixth streets. During the spring of 1862, an effort was made to organize a Board of Trade, but nothing was ever accomplished beyond the election of officers. We have often deplored the strange lukewarmness evinced by our merchants and manufacturers on this subject, and we are therefore rejoiced to hope that even of this eleventh hour there is a prospect that the original intention will be carried out. If the Board of Trade had been in effective operation during the past twelve or fifteen months, it would have accomplished great results for the trade of our city, and we should have spared the mortification of seeing business diverted from Louisville to other more energetic rivals until we have lost all our old intercourse, and apart from the public military transaction, the city is actually without any impulse which can be dignified with the name of business. The various Treasury orders regulating trade have been regarded as necessary, and submitted to with patriotic resignation, but they could have been essentially modified if there had been proper and authoritative representations made of the injury they were effecting. That our business men should at last have found this out is not surprising, but it is certainly inexplicable that for more than a year they have suffered so many inconveniences without taking some decisive measures to remedy them. The meeting called for this evening demands the earnest attention of everybody who is interested in the prosperity of the city, and we hope the following call of the officers of the Board of Trade will meet a universal response.

NOTICE.

At the request of many members of the Board of Trade, we will meet on the evening of this day, to-night, at 8 o'clock, at the Council Chamber, corner of Sixth and Jefferson streets. It is earnestly hoped that all interested in the prosperity of the city will attend.

GEORGE W. MORRIS,
President of Board of Trade.

JAMES S. WALLACE, Secretary.

There is an unprecedented demand in our city for well-planned and comfortable tenements within the reach of families of moderate means. Our population is increasing without a corresponding increase of houses. We feel confident that one hundred houses, of the character mentioned, might be rented within one week. Most of the houses which are for rent are either of too high price, or of such a character as few respectable families would like to occupy. What better disposition can capitalists make of their funds than to purchase lots at the present rates and erect comfortable dwellings for rent thereon? Some of the miserable buildings which are now standing on valuable lots should be torn down and replaced with those which would pay a better per cent to the proprietors. The man who first takes hold of this will reap a rich reward for his foresight and enterprise.

A correspondent of the Detroit Advertiser, writing from this city under the signature B. F. T., on the 20th ult., and referring to the relief of the Thirty-fourth Kentucky by Col. Moore's Twenty-fifth Michigan as Provost Guard of Louisville, charges that the Kentuckians "had exhibited too much rawhosity in the performance of their duties to be endured by the citizens, and a change had become necessary." We feel it duty to deny this allegation, as the old Provost Guard regiment, while in our city, was amenable to no such sweeping charge.

Picnics.—The picnic season is upon us in all its radiant glory, and we are pleased to observe that our young friends are awaiting themselves of this delightful weather to enjoy the heavenly beauties of spring. We can conceive of nothing more beautiful than a morning procession of "lads and lasses," armed with baskets, making the air ring with their mirth as they trip with joyous hearts to the "field of action."

A part of the command of Col. Jacob's Ninth Kentucky Cavalry and a part of the Eleventh Kentucky Cavalry were sent out Saturday to break up a guerrilla camp near Horse-shoe Bend, on the Cumberland river. They captured eight prisoners. Yesterday morning Jacob's camp was attacked, and after two hours' fighting the rebels were driven back in great confusion and with heavy loss.

Our young friend, Mr. D. Erringer, the telegraphic operator at Jeffersonville, informed us that the report circulated in this city, regarding a despatch confirming the news of the fall of Richmond, did not emanate from him, and those who attributed the false report to Mr. E. were guilty of great injustice to him. No such despatch was received at Jeffersonville yesterday.

William H. Randall, Esq., of Laurel county, was nominated as the Union candidate for Congress in the Eighth District by a Convention held at London on the 6th inst. There were several ballots; the vote on the last stood, Randall 63 and Curtis F. Burnam of Madison, 62. On previous ballots, Messrs. John G. Eve, George W. Dunlap, and William A. Hoskins had been dropped.

The city was ripe with rumors yesterday of every shade and hue regarding Hooker's army. There was a general disposition to rejoice, but the unreliable nature of telegraphic despatches suppressed any outward manifestations, though it was evidently depicted in the countenances of nearly all that fond hopes were cherished within.

We deem it proper to state, that, on the evening of Monday last, J. G. Wilson, Esq., left at our office for publication the proceedings of a meeting of citizens of Jefferson county held that day at Lagrange. We make this statement in justice to Mr. Wilson.

The pleasure gardens in different parts of the city are in full operation, and crowds of the "gay and festive" wended their way to these resorts yesterday to participate in the general demolition of "lager-beer and pretzels."

We are informed that three hundred sick soldiers are expected to arrive here to-day from Nashville. Two hundred sick soldiers were transferred yesterday from the hospitals in this city to New Albany.

Samuel Churchill was arrested in this city, on Saturday evening, by a St. Louis detective, upon an order issued by Gen. Curtis, and taken to St. Louis.

The city was quiet yesterday, and we did not hear of any arrests by either the military or civil authorities.

SERENADE OVER CHAPLAIN TAYLOR.
Held, P. B. Hall, Judge, 20th Inst., at 8 P. M., to pay the expenses of the funeral of Gen. T. J. Drake.

Indictments.—The Grand Jury returned the following indictments: Wm. Newton, for malicious shooting; Jeremy Paddock and D. W. Holland, for attempting to pass broken and bogus bank notes; Frank Walker, for grand larceny; M. Fahay, for receiving stolen goods, and John H. Bremer, for manslaughter.

Discharged.—Mary Burns alias Mary Collins, grand larceny; John Dolan, horse-stealing; Charles Johnson alias Thomas Taylor, grand larceny; John Saba, receiving stolen money; Mary McCarthy, receiving stolen goods; Clara Brown (f. w. t.), receiving stolen goods; and Thomas Kinlaw, malicious shooting.

Sentenced.—C. Rogers, seven years and ten months; and J. W. Buckman, four years.

IMPORTANT ORDER.—An order was received at headquarters yesterday from General Burnside, instructing the military authorities at this place to issue no passes south of this point to any persons, except those who are citizens and residing south of Louisville, unless permission is granted by Gen. Rosecrans.

Wood's Theatre.—Mr. John E. Owens enters upon the second week of his engagement this evening, appearing as Paul Pry, and Sampson in the farce of the Windmill. It gratifies us to see that this sterling comedian is properly appreciated and that he is drawing crowded and applauding audiences.

Louisville Theatre—Benefit of Miss Sophie.—The pantomimes of the Schoolmaster and the Cooper and the drama of the Lucky Horseman are produced to-night for the benefit of the graceful danseuse Miss Sophie and we hope she will be generously remunerated by the public for her labors to please.

EWEN.—W. A. Gleaves, J. C. Wharton, Jacob Thomas, Dr. Thomas, B. Buchanan, Harvey Atkins and John Wesley Baker, a portion of those who were arrested three or four weeks ago, at Nashville, were sent beyond the Federal lines on Friday.

A man named Westley Riley, committed to jail in Owensboro in February last on a charge of larceny, made his escape last week. Some person from the outside removed the hold door lock, and then burst the padlock of the cell door.

INNERS.—W. A. Gleaves, J. C. Wharton, Jacob Thomas, Dr. Thomas, B. Buchanan, Harvey Atkins and John Wesley Baker, a portion of those who were arrested three or four weeks ago, at Nashville, were sent beyond the Federal lines on Friday.
